

MHS TALKS - FRIDAY, MAY 15
ROUNDTABLE DISCUSSION WITH EXPERTS

DATA MANAGEMENT FOR IMPROVED HEALTHCARE SOLUTIONS
MHS TALKS # 9

Brian Blaubeux	BS, Cornell University, Biology; MD, Albert Einstein College of Medicine; Certificate, Columbia University, Health Information Technology Current: Chief Medical Informatics Officer, Northern Westchester Hospital. Bridge gaps between doctors, hospital administration, and the I.T. department. Ensure the electronic medical record system maximizes patient benefits, improves doctors' workflows, and complies with government requirements. Also: urgent care specialist at Mount Kisco Medical Group. Previous: Emergency room Physician and Director
Monique Fayad	BS, Chestnut Hill College; MBA, New York University, Leonard Stern School of Business Current: Founder and CEO, ICDLogic, a SaaS platform that provides powerful tools for clinical documentation improvement and revenue cycle integrity. Developed and commercialized digital health information solutions for the clinical and regulatory markets. Previous: SVP Strategy & Electronic Development, HCPro; SVP Strategy & Corporate Development, Elsevier Health Sciences
Michelle Snyder	Bachelor of Commerce, McIntire School of Business, University of Virginia; MBA, Fuqua School of Business, Duke University Current: Director, Business Analytics and Insights, World Wide Commercial Development, Oncology, Pfizer. Strategic thought partner for oncology assets. Also conducts a full range of research, including direct-to-consumer research for TV ads. Previous: Strategy and Insight, Boston Consulting Group; Strategy, Coca-Cola Company; Computer Programmer, Price Waterhouse Coopers
Michael Tolle	BS Mechanical Engineering, Villanova University; MBA, New York University Current: Founder of Specialized Home Healthcare, LLC, a company that drives advancements in specific home-based healthcare capabilities using data analytics and technology Previous: Business Leader, Mastercard; VP, Mergers & Acquisitions, Young & Rubicam; VP, Goldman Sachs; Management Consultant, IBM

HEALTHCARE INNOVATIONS AND INVENTIONS
MHS TALKS # 10

This Talk includes expert(s) from diverse backgrounds.

Chetna Bhattacharyya	BS, Indiana University, Biology and Mathematics; MD, Indiana University School of Medicine Current: Senior Medical Director, Pfizer, Inc. Leads digital technology projects that help patients and physicians improve the quality of healthcare. Work to find new ways to use digital engagement in the healthcare sector. Previous: Ophthalmologist
Henry Wei	BA, Harvard University, Biology; MA, Harvard University, Biology; MD, Cornell University. Current: Sr. Medical Director, Innovation, Aetna. Inventor working with startups that want to use technology to help doctors and patients. Previous: Presidential Innovation Fellow in Obama administration - worked with U.S. Chief Technology Officer on health information technology innovation
Joe Glazer	BA, Yale University, Political Science; MBA, Columbia Business School Current: Founder and CEO, StopLight, a Bluetooth connected smart lighter that helps users measure and manage their smoking habit. The lighter works with an app that allows users to create a custom reduction program which in turn controls the functionality of the lighter, reducing their habit over time. Previous: Legislative Correspondent for Senator Kirsten E. Gillibrand

MHS TALKS - FRIDAY, MAY 15
ROUNDTABLE DISCUSSION WITH EXPERTS

INTEGRATED APPROACHES TO HEALTH AND WELLNESS

MHS TALKS # 11

- | | |
|-------------------------|---|
| Kathy Casey | BS, Mercy College, Business Administration; NYS Certification, Paralegal, Mercy College; MS, Pacific College of Oriental Medicine, Acupuncture & Oriental Medicine
Current: Owner, Licensed Acupuncturist, Touchstone Acupuncture. Private practice focusing on supporting health and wellness with Chinese medicine, patient education and coaching.
Previous: Hospitality, Real Estate Broker, Paralegal, Sales Coach, Public Speaking |
| Sean Fitzpatrick | BS, Ithaca College, Health Administration
Current: Owner/Manager, One2One Bodyscapes, a personal training studio. Study functional biomechanics, motivate people, address injuries, and coach lifestyle changes, finding the right balance of challenge and fun.
Previous: Personal Trainer, Equinox; Aquatics and Fitness Director, Mamaroneck Beach and Yacht Club |
| Ellen Kaldor | BS, Duke University, Psychology; MPT, Emory University, Physical Therapy; MEd, Teachers College, Columbia University
Current: Physical Therapist, Westchester Therapy Solutions. Facilitate in the development of gross motor milestones in children aged 0-5 through the Early Intervention and CPSE programs. Also: Physical Therapy Instructor
Previous: Various acute care, rehabilitation and outpatient facilities including NICU, treating premature children. |
| Bob Fanelli | BA, Iona College, Philosophy/Psychology; MS, Long Island University, Exercise Physiology
Current: Rehab Therapist, Body By Design, Inc. Perform orthopedic rehabilitation in private practice. Also: Teaching assistant for the Gray Institute Fellowship program in Applied Functional Science
Previous: Clinical Director, Cardiac Rehab St. John's Riverside Hospital; Psychiatric Technician, Silver Hill Hospital, Stamford Hospital |

DIVERSE CAREERS IN MEDICINE

MHS TALKS # 12

- | | |
|----------------------|--|
| Auxford Burks | BS, Georgia Tech, Biology; MD, Tulane University; Residency (Pediatrics), Children's Hospital of Los Angeles
Current: Director, Pediatric Residency Training Program, Einstein Medical School. Run residency training program at an inner-city municipal hospital.
Previous: Community Health Center near Mexico |
| Isaac Dapkins | BS, City College of NY, The Sophie Davis School of Biomedical Education; MD, Mount Sinai School of Medicine
Current: Medical Director, Bronx Lebanon Hospital. Oversee quality of care provided, recruit providers, manage IT development and implementation and use data to drive business development. Care for HIV infected individuals.
Previous: Worked with homeless families in the Bronx |
| Abbe Kirsch | BA, University of California, Santa Barbara, Liberal Studies; MPH, Columbia University School of Public Health, Population and Family Planning; BSN & MSN, Columbia University School of Nursing, Midwifery
Current: Co-Director, Midwifery, Bronx Lebanon Hospital. Direct clinical care of women in reproductive health, including gynecology. Manage staff of Midwives and group prenatal care program.
Previous: Foster Care agency assisting teens; Education Coordinator at community based women's healthcare |

RESEARCH IN MEDICINE

MHS TALKS # 13

- | | |
|--------------------------|---|
| Benjamin Hopkins | BA, Amherst College, Religion; MA, Yale University, Religion; PhD, Columbia University, Biology
Current: Postdoctoral Fellow, Cornell University. Cancer Biologist, studying the role of insulin in pancreatic cancer. |
| Carrie Koval-Burt | BA, Mount Holyoke College, Biology; MS, Northwestern University, Genetic Counseling
Current: Genetic Counselor, New York Presbyterian Hospital. Provide genetic counseling and risk assessment to children and adults affected with cancer predisposition syndromes and neuromuscular disorders using family histories and genetic testing. Explain inheritance patterns and discuss advanced reproductive technologies as applicable. |
| Zahi Fayad | BSEE, Bradley University, Electrical Engineering, minor in Mathematics; MSE, Johns Hopkins University, Biomedical Engineering; PhD, University of Pennsylvania, Bioengineering
Current: Professor of Radiology and Medicine (Cardiology), Mount Sinai School of Medicine. Director of the Translational and Molecular Imaging Institute; Vice chair for Research, Department of Radiology at the Icahn School of Medicine at Mount Sinai. Bridges research from engineering to biology and from pre-clinical to clinical investigations to detect and prevent cardiovascular disease in the field of multimodality biomedical imaging (MR, CT, PET and PET/MR) and nanomedicine. Also: Editor of various medical journals. Teacher and mentor to postdoctoral and clinical fellows. |